Description

Pair of 1930's English Angravess Invincible Range Garden Armchairs with Cushions. This is a fabulous, large scale pair of English made early 20th century cane garden armchairs that recline well, made and labelled by Angravess of Leicester, neighbours to Dryad furniture makers. This pair of reclining cane armchairs are part of the Angravess, Invincible Range in the early thirties. Both the cane armchair are in excellent original condition, all very strong and complete, one chair has the Angravess makers label. Very comfortable chairs with the original cushions with old fabric. It is getting increasingly harder to find this type of cane armchairs in such good, original condition. Perfect for the garden, courtyard or terrace. Dimensions Height: 86cm (34.13") Width: 60cm (23.81") Depth: 90cm (35.71") Additional Info The seats with cushion are 41cm high.
