Description

A magnificent antique Georgian mahogany commode or side cabinet dating from circa 1790. Featuring a single drawer above a tambour front cupboard and a twin dummy front cupboard with brass oval back plates and swing handles. It has a shaped apron and stands on splayed bracket feet. A really attractive piece in beautiful flame figured mahogany veneers, with good original colour and patina. A versatile piece of antique furniture that could be used as a bedside cabinet, would work well in a bathroom or perhaps could be used as a drinks cupboard or hall cupboard. This cabinet would have originally started life as a commode / chamber pot cupboard and has been converted into a side cabinet at some point. Construction/Wood: Mahogany Condition Report: Good colour and patina. Wear and marks to the top and front commensurate with age. It would have stated life as a commode and has been converted into a side cabinet. Some old worm holes to the bottom/bottom cupboard.
