Description

A very rare chance to acquire a Set of 16 French Dining Chairs. I say 16 but I have only photographed 14 as one of the chairs has a slightly warped frame, number 15 if perfect but it would have been an odd number ! So there are 15 good chairs and 1 wonky one which could kind of be used in an emergency ! So they date to the early 1900s and of very good quality, they have their original white finish and the 15 are strong and sturdy. The current upholstered seats have maybe seen better days but they are completely usable but I imagine you would want to re upholster in your own fabric choice. The internal upholstery and springs are in good shape. It is extremely rare, if not impossible to find a long set of chairs and they would look amazing in any setting including around a huge Farmhouse Table.
