Description

This is an exceptional Nagaland tribal table. It makes the most incredible coffee table with wonderful patina to the wood. The whole table is carved from one single piece of timber which gives it amazing form and design that works so well in interiors. The top is wonderfully shaped making it level to use for your cup of tea or glass of wine. Great size as well! This piece is so much nicer in real life. Nagaland tribes are from Northern India and live in the forest. Their tribal works are very rare to come across and are a form of artwork in their own right.
