Description

This is a fantastic antique Queen Anne Revival burr walnut cocktail cabinet with fitted and mirrored revolving interior, dating from C 1920. The two doors opens to a fitted mirrored interior with a central drum revolving section with pop out mirrored tray, two further pull out mirrored trays, three drawers and a carved apron. The cabinet is raised on carved cabriole legs terminating in ball and claw feet and has it's working locks and keys. It is complete with 27 various cut glasses and 2 cut glass decanters with stoppers. You open the cabinet by unlocking the right hand door, then releasing a brass catch on the lower left, this allows you to rotate the curved central door and the mirrored interior then comes into view, you can then open the left hand door by releasing another catch on the inside top of that door. This cocktail cabinet would be a wonderful and playful addition to your lounge or family room and is sure to get noticed wherever it is placed. Condition: In excellent condition having been beautifully cleaned, polished and waxed in our workshops, please see photos for confirmation.
