Description

This is a large antique morning room cabinet. An English, mahogany and glass country house side cupboard, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1840. Fine craftsmanship and unusual in this proportion and style. Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order. Select stocks present fine grain interest throughout the cabinet. Rich caramel hues beam beneath a wax polish finish. Low back stand accentuates the upper, ideal for vases or photo frames. Pair of glazed doors with broad cockbeaded frames and scrolled mounts. Right-hand door dressed with an inset, working lock — key with tassel present. Left-hand cabinet benefits from a display shelf to the interior. Deeper lower cabinet with two large panel doors, adorned with relief carvings. Generously sized interiors in clean, original order. Door dressed with a small circular brass lock escutcheon — in working order, key present. Raised upon a continuous plinth foot at the front and sides, bracket feet to rear. This is a striking antique morning room cabinet, with a delightful proportion and accentuated with quality craftsmanship throughout. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home. Di...
