Description

This is a very large antique partner's desk. An English, mahogany and leather twin pedestal desk by Maple & Co, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910. Exceptional proportion and arrangement to this grand desk. Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order. Select stocks present fine grain interest and rich caramel hues. Inset leather skiver to the top, embossed to the edge with repeat pattern. The wide top supported upon a pair of deep pedestal bases. Arrangement of drawers across the upper fascia with a double wide centre drawer. Dressed with brass drop handles over distinctive shaped backplates. Locks fitted throughout, in working order — set of four keys present. Pedestal accentuated with field panels to the ends and to the cabinet door. At the reverse of each pedestal, a bank of three graduated drawers. One central drawer replete with the Maple & Co maker's emblem. Finished with continuous plinth bases over inset castors. This is a striking antique partner's desk, graced with superb craftsmanship and an attractive finish. Of superior proportion, well suited to a prominent position within the home or institution. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polis...
