Description

This is a pair of antique carver chairs. An English, mahogany and leather elbow seat in the Chippendale manner, dating to the Georgian period, circa 1800. Superb Chippendale taste and fine craftsmanship. Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order. Select stocks show fine grain interest and rich, deep caramel hues. Wonderful leather pads, tanned in a rich burgundy hue. Serpentine cresting rail, with scrolled detail to the 'Chippendale' ears. Leading into a striking, pierced ribbon back splat with graceful fretwork. Sinuous arms terminate in appealing scrolled knuckles. Each arm raised upon a slender, forward canted support. Quality, leather upholstery in good order, free of marks or loss. Professionally reupholstered and traditionally stuffed cushioning. Drop-in seat at a comfortable height of 46.5cm (18.25"), resting upon later reinforced brackets. Raised upon square section front legs, with a gently splayed pair to the rear. This is a fantastic pair of antique carver chairs in the appealing manner of Chippendale. Presenting beautifully throughout the residence, with a quality of craftsmanship to invite conversation. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polis...
