Description

An antique Persian Afshar, handwoven rug, approximately 5'10" x 4'5", dating from the 2nd half of the C19th. This old rug has a field filled with boteh motifs, enclosed by repeating stylised flower borders. A hand knotted, rug with short medium pile, short fringes to both ends. Wool pile and foundations. A well worn in old rug, full of charm and character, lots of aged wear but still ready for use. Dimensions: This rug measures approximately 177 cm long including fringes, and 135 cm wide. Condition: Please see the pictures for details of the items condition. - This rug is in original, well worn, aged condition. Wear to the pile and the fringes. A spilt to one corner. Fringes with some losses. Aged and slightly miss-shaped, though this is an old handmade rug, and this is not usual in a well used piece. Clean and ready for use. - As with all vintage & antique furniture there will be signs of use, marks, wear & tear, etc.
