Description

We are very excited to be able to offer you this superb 1930's Art Deco chest of drawers, the quality of which is not often seen. Raised on an ebonised stepped plinth are five graduated in size drawers, offering plentiful storage for your folded clothing. Not only does this chest of drawers offer great storage but also the best in kerb appeal. The colouring is that of a mix of conker and honey all swirled into one. The figuring on the veneers are an absolute delight and if you're like me and love Walnut as a wood you'll adore this! The very top drawer locks and has it's original key and brass lock, see images. Has it's original makers label, in fact, there are two, one inside a drawer the other on the back of the chest. Stating Halifax, England. added to the drawers are the set of ten original bakelite pull drawer handles, all in great condition, no discolouring or chips. The overall finish is a deep shine (not gloss) and is smooth as cotton. It feels and looks luxurious and it is, this piece definitely won't disappoint. Fully and professionally restored and ready to be delivered, no faults to note. FREE UK two man delivery
