Description

This is a large pair of antique firedogs. An English, wrought iron fireplace andirons, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1900. Substantial size, ideal as tool rests or hosting a large fire grate. Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order. Wrought iron presents deep graphite hues. Fascinating ram's head form to the upright, with tool rests below. Raised upon a distinctive front arch leg with decorative foot. This is a striking pair of antique firedogs. Exceptional proportion, perfect for the grandest of fireplaces. Delivered polished and ready for the fireside.
