Date of manufacture: 1920

Description

Record Dreadnought 'Trenton' pocket watch. The watch has a seven jewel stem-winding movement which is working nicely. The movement is signed Record Dreadnought and it also has the name Trenton, one of a number of model names used by the company. The movement is protected by an inner dust cover. The watch measures 52.2mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is 10ct gold filled and is the Moon model from the Birmingham based case maker Aaron Dennison. Dennison produced cases for various watch manufacturers. The case has light surface marking from use but overall it is in nice condition for a 1920s piece. The glass lens is in good condition. The signed dial is in nice condition. The watch has its original blued steel hands. The watch comes in a new presentation box.
