Description

English 18th century Oak Bureau in good original condition, beautiful patination some tiger skin grain patterns a lovely rich colour has been retained mainly because this has not been restored, some small repairs as you would expect but it is all here a wealth of character. Lock missing to internal door to the fitted interior,. No keys, the handles have been replaced at some point, all drawers have their original locks as does the fall front, there has been a small amount of woodworm on the back panel this has been treated but has been dead for a long time. To sum up a really authentic good sized beautifully patinated late 18th century Oak Bureau, in full working condition.
