Description

Lovely late Victorian silver-plate mounted horse hoof desk/dressing table box; the mountings are of the highest quality and have a plain hinged lid, the interior of the box is blue velvet lined. The mounting at the top of the hoof simulates horse hair to complete the theme. The actual hoof is in great condition. The maker/retailer was a renowned and highly respected taxidermy specialist. The underside also bears the name "The Jingle." Great for any horse lover. London. c.1900. Rowland Ward (Piccadilly.) Ltd. Height 7.5cm
