Description

A matching pair of French Art Deco leather club armchairs, they are identical in shape and size. The only difference being that one is more caramel coloured than the other. These generous pair of antique leather club armchairs, benefit from a beautiful weathered patina. The armchairs are structurally sound, showing signs of wear and historical repairs to the leather. The darker coloured armchair's leather shows more sign of wear. Their seat height is 34cm. The legs are made from Beechwood.
