Description

This is a splendid antique Victorian silver-plated Corinthian column table lamp now converted to electricity, late C1880 in date. This decorative antique table lamp features a kingly Corinthian Capital decorated with classical ornate foliage in the form of splendid acanthus leaves above a striking fluted shaft, and it stands on a large and weighted partially stepped square base decorated with garlands. Add an element of Classical style to your home with this exquisite antique silver-plated table lamp. Condition: In excellent working condition having been beautifully cleaned and rewired, please see photos for confirmation. Dimensions in cm: Height 48 x Width 14 x Depth 14 Dimensions in inches: Height 1 foot, 7 inches x Width 5 inches x Depth 5 inches Corinthian capital It has been suggested that the foliage of the Greek Corinthian capital was based on the Acanthus spinosus, that of the Roman on the Acanthus mollis. The leaves are generally carved in two "ranks" or bands, like one leafy cup set within another. One of the most beautiful Corinthian capitals is that from the Tholos of Epidauros (400 BC); it illustrates the transition between the earlier Greek capital,...
