Description

This is a magnificent antique French Art Deco bisque porcelain model of a seated nude woman with flowers by the sculptor Henri Desiré Grisard (1872-active until 1940) and bearing his signature and the impressed mark "Paris", dating from Circa 1920. This stunning sculpture is mounted on a striking rectangular base. This is a splendid bisque sculpture and it will no doubt become the centrepiece of your Art Deco collection. Condition: In really excellent condition with no restoration, chips or cracks, please see photos for confirmation of condition.

Dimensions in cm: Height 17 x Width 25 x Depth 9.5. Dimensions in inches: Height 7 inches x Width 10 inches x Depth 4 inches. Désiré GRISARD is an artist born in France in 1872. The artist's works have gone up for sale at public auction 99 times, mostly in the Sculpture-Volume category. The artist's works are mainly sold in the United States. Bisque porcelain or bisque is unglazed, white porcelain treated as a final product, with a matte appearance and texture to the touch. It has been widely used in European pottery, mainly for sculptural and decorative objects that are not tableware and so do not need a glaze for protection.
