Description

A set of 4 late 18th Century / early 19th Century pewter dinner plates. With slightly rubbed marks but for makers Birch & Villiers (1775-1820). A superb looking set with great patination. The condition is very good overall with no dents or splits. The upper surfaces are slightly more polished than the bases. Overall a very clean set. One plate has a slight knock to the rim and the expected surface wear due to age and use. Total weight approx 2.2kg. Diameter approx 9.75 inches / 25 cm
