Description

Pair of Stunning Victorian Armchair - Superb Condition - c1900 A fabulous pair of late Victorian Bergere semi-upholstered armchairs. The pair are in excellent order having been recently fully professionally re-upholstered and are a good example of the build quality that makes this age of soft furniture so desirable. The mahogany frames are in superb order. The Bergere canework is in great condition. The armchairs sit upon claw & ball feet and benefit from attractive carving detail. This pair exude a timeless appeal and offer tremendous comfort. The deep seated design is very pleasing. Both are from a smoke and pet free environment. The cushions are traditionally feather filled and produce the expected 'big squashy feeling' making them comfortable and supportive to sit on. A rare opportunity to acquire a matching pair in such great order. This item comes with our 100% satisfaction guarantee. Please do not hesitate to contact us if you require further information - we are here to help. Please see the images for the dimensions of this item. We deliver Worldwide. Please note that the Walnut Bergere table shown in the images is available separately and not included ...
