Description

We are delighted to offer this splendid antique 18ct gold diamond ring made c.1900s. The ring features a wonderful 15 old-cut diamond design, all intricately set in a navette/marquise design. This design allows for the angles of the diamonds to be slightly different on each stone, maximising the shine and reflection of the ring. The ring glistens delightfully upon wearing particularly when under natural sunlight. In addition to the impressive setting of antique diamonds, the gold mount and shoulders of the ring are finely detailed and elevate the overall splendour of the ring upon wearing. Such a combination of fine goldsmithing and jewellery design makes this an excellent and versatile choice whether be it for wearing as a contrasting piece of jewellery among other pieces or as an eye-catching single ring. Diamond is known to be the birthstone for April. A very special gift to a lucky individual or as an indulging gift to oneself. Classically elegant, distinguished and a conversation starter. The ring has faint hallmarks that are worn due to age and are difficult to identify, and as such, we have fully tested it for 18ct solid gold. All of our r...
