

SA1003001

18th Century Jacobite Sympathy Jelly Glass c1780

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA1003001*Date of manufacture: 1750

Dimensions

Height = 10.8 cm (4.3")

Width = 7 cm (2.8")

Description

Technical Description An excellent antique Jacobite Sympathy Jelly glass dating to 1780. It has a flared round funnel bowl with engraved stylized rose, bud, lily of the valley and a Jay bird. Domed foot. Date & Origin England, c1780. Period of George III. Condition Excellent, no chips cracks or restoration Dimensions Height: 10.8 cm Rim diameter: 7cm Foot diameter: 5.8cm Historical Relevance In Feb 1782 James Chalmers was born in Arbroath Scotland, who went on to invent of the adhesive postal stamp.

Internal Ref: 2023061536

Seller Details

Exhibit Antiques

Glasgow Scotland United Kingdom

Tel: 01501 228 282

International Tel: +44 1501 228 282

