Description

Technical Description An excellent example of an 18th century antique wine glass. It has a round funnel bowl engraved with an engraved band of leaves and flowers around the rim with flute moulding below. Sits on a plain stem with a conical folded foot. Date & Origin England, c1740. Period of George II. Condition Excellent, no chips cracks. The rim is a little wavey, thickens at the edge, retains its fire polish and has consistent wear and shows no signs of restoration. may have had a very minor polish in the past but it thickens at the edge and the wear is as expected. Dimensions Height: 13.2 Rim diameter: 4.8cm Foot diameter: 6.6cm. Comments The "plain stem" wine glass of the 18th century has a strength of character unequalled by many of its contemporaries. With an amazing array of sizes, bowls, and foot forms, the 'plain stem' is very much a collector's favourite. This is a particularly fine example with a combination of engraving and moulding and a folded foot. Elegance and strength.
