Description

A superb Victorian silver sifter spoon of superior gauge and quality. This splendid example has a beautifully pierced and shaped shell bowl and the spoon is both fully cast and double struck (pattern front and back). The handle has a stylish engraved monogram, to the top front. This particular pattern does not shown in the Chawner pattern book, suggesting that it might have been a 'one off' created especially for the Family whose crest it bears. A superior and good quality example, with a practical use. Dimensions below. Postage and packing £8.00 UK £16.00 Europe £22.00 Outside Europe Condition :- Excellent, with no dents or splits. Hallmarks :- Clear and readable. Maker :- George Adams. Date :- London 1865. Length :- 15.5 cms. Bowl diameter :- 4.2 cms. Weight :- 46 grams.
