Description

Large size early Victorian coopered oak and brass bound jug. Not sure what it would have been used for originally as it is pretty large. Nice colour of oak with all the original brass bands, shaped brass top and brass handle. No significant issues, basically good for its age. Would make a good stick or umbrella stand in a hallway. SIZE; 10" diameter by 23" high CIRCA; 1850 - 1870
