Description

We are delighted to offer this magnificent gold harvest brooch made in solid 9ct gold. Exceptionally stylish and ornate, this brooch presents an array of delightful features that distinguish and accentuate this unique piece. Crisp, defined and life-like; the gold wheat sheaf features individual strands of wheat that spread towards the top, giving a splendid and aesthetic proportion to the overall brooch. Each fine wheat strand is intricately made from gold and is banded towards the bottom by a band of sparkling diamonds. Embedded and embellished within the overall sheaf, some emeralds, sapphires and ruby are set to accentuate the overall gold tone and further elevate the elegance and artisanal qualities of the brooch. Bold in size, yet embellished with minute, intricate detailing, this brooch certainly makes a sophisticated statement upon wearing. Whether be it on a lapel or a jumper, this brooch would serve as an impressive piece of fine decorative jewellery as well as a conversation starter. The brooch is stamped 9ct on the rear of one of the wheat strands towards the top. All of our jewellery comes with a complimentary hard shell gift box with a v...
