Description

Fabulous Large English Antique Ash Kitchen Dining Table This is a wonderful, large scale English William IV antique kitchen dining table made entirely in ash woods which is quite unusual. This beautiful kitchen dining table dates to around 1830 and is a superb, original colour and it comes with a lovely original 'turn over' table top. one side for cooking / working on and the other side finished for dining. This ash wood table top is made in just two wide and thick planks that are cleated to each end with pegged biscuit joints in the centre. The antique kitchen table base has well turned legs with three large drawers along one side, all run well and have the original brass knob handles. In excellent condition throughout, a really lovely looking country kitchen table that is from the North of England originally, it is finished on all sides. Dimensions Height: 79cm (31.35") Width: 219cm (86.90") Depth: 90cm (35.71")
