Description

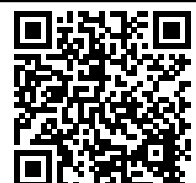

This is a beautiful and rare antique Regency Revival burr walnut extending dining table in the manner of Johnstone Jupe & Co, Circa 1900 in date, and attributed to Arthur Brett & Sons, Norfolk, England. The table has a wonderful burr walnut top with five peripheral leaves that can be added around the circumference when required. It is raised on a Cumberland design circular ring base with quadruped sabre legs, terminating in brass cappings and castors. To fit the leaves pull out the slides, see photos, from the sides of the table top and fit the leaves onto the slides, securing them with brass clips. With the leaves attached around the circumference the table is approx 7ft in diameter and can seat ten people in comfort, with the leaves removed it is approx 5ft in diameter. There is no mistaking the fine craftsmanship of this handsome table, which is certain to become a treasured addition to your furniture collection, and a talking point with guests at meal times. Condition: In really excellent condition having only been beautifully cleaned, polished and waxed in our workshops, please see photos for confirmation. Dimensions in cm: Height 78 x Width 216 x...
