Description

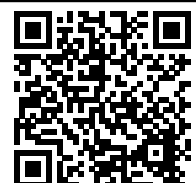

An attractive and solid early 20th century antique oak refectory table, in the 17th century style. The antique oak table has a rectangular shaped cleated single plank top, raised on cup and cover supports and sleigh feet. A particularly good dining table, with lovely colour and grain throughout. Comfortably seats six to eight people. Comes apart in four sections for ease of transport. Perfectly paired with our range of oak chairs (M-4769 pictured). Item Ref; M-4770 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 76.5cm / Width - 181.5cm / Depth - 76cm / Legroom - 69cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks, scratches and a minor split to the top (pictured). There are further marks, scratches and fading to the base (pictured). The antique oak refectory table remains structurally solid and sound. Comes apart in four sections for ease of transport. Overall, a great oak dining table. Our experienced carpenter meticulously inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our collection. This ensures that every piece you purchase from us is ready to be seamlessly incorporated into your home. To provide you...
