Description

This early 20th-century German oil painting depicts a standing nude posing before a gold-framed mirror. She glances back via a reflection with a smile and a glint - it's cheeky, joyous and daring. Stretching her arms upwards as if recently woken. It seems personal, does the artist know her? Both the figure and room are nicely rendered. Note the brightly-coloured cushions in subtle daubs and the clever realism in the skin tones. It's an effervescent work brimming with spirit. Signed illegibly in the lower right and held within a later frame. Medium: Oil on cardboard Overall size: 12½" x 16" / 32cm x 41cm Year of creation: c. 1920 Condition: Artwork presents well. Frame with some light wear.
