Description

This is an antique cleric's swing-out case. A Chinese, hardwood travelling box, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1890. Charmingly provincial box, presented in original time-worn condition. Displays a desirable aged patina throughout. Hardwood stocks present medium caramel hues. Brass strapping to the corners — some minor loss. Carved field panels adorn the case front with traditional Dogs of Fo. Lid opens aiding access to a pair of swing-out compartments. Arrangement of three drawers to the centre beneath a galleried tray. Drawers dressed with small, pierced brass drop handles. This is a fascinating antique cleric's swing-out case, with a time-worn nature, commensurate with age and travel. Delivered polished and ready for the home.
