Description

A very rare Edwardian Art Nouveau silver mustard pot. Made by the famous silversmiths Samson Mordan and Co of London in 1902. The pot has cast flowers and leaves. There is a tendril for a thumb piece and a full set of crisp hallmarks underneath. There is an associated blue glass liner correct for the period but slightly smaller. Samson Mordan were famous for small collectables and this mustard pot is a scarce item and extremely collectible.

WEIGHT; 141 grams including the glass. Free delivery in the UK. Payment by bank transfer, by telephone, Paypal or by cleared cheque.
