Description

A pair of Chelsea vases painted allover with exotic birds and flowers. The top rim and foot rim are both heavily gilded and there are gilded lion heads supporting loop handles. They are lovely and most decorative but have both been professionally restored. The restoration is only visible with close examination. I would not normally present restored porcelain, however, they are just so lovely. The restoration is reflected in the price. Circa 1860. We can deliver free of charge in UK mainland and can calculate the cost for International delivery. Payment by bank transfer, PayPal and card via telephone.
