Description

This is an impressive and elegant antique English Regency flame mahogany gentleman's wardrobe in the manner of Marsh & Tatham, and Circa 1815 in date. This wonderful tall two door wardrobe features an exquisite cornice with twin leaf scroll carved pediments with acroteria corners above two small drawers, and a pair of ebony moulded triple panel doors, on splayed feet. It has a highly attractive pair of ebony moulded flame mahogany triple panel doors and is raised on decoratively carved splayed feet. The doors open to reveal a capacious full width hanging section with brass hanging poles and wooden hooks. Complete with working locks and keys. It is a truly beautiful and spacious wardrobe with handsome proportions and amazingly undisturbed patina.
