Description

Antique Mahogany Wall / Bracket Clock By Valiant Paris With Pinwheel Escapement. This absolutely stunning mahogany bracket clock has a beautiful rich colour and grain and has an unusually shaped case that gives the feeling of a miniature grandfather clock. The top of the case is arched with a moulding to the top edge leading to the "hood" which can be slid forwards like a grandfather clock to reveal the movement. The hood then has two doors (one to each side) with lovely, silk backed, fretwork panels. The front of the hood also has a lovely inlay below the dial. The body of the case is then long and rectangular with the front edge being beautifully inset. The door then has a lovely glass viewing window so the the pendulum can be seen ticking which is framed by a thin moulding. There is then a final thick moulding to the bottom of the case which then sits into the beautifully shaped wall bracket! The dial is then enamel and set put in black Roman numerals. There is then a thing ring of dashes to the outside marking the minutes as well as every fifteen minutes being marked in Arabic Numerals. The dial then has two intricately shaped hands as well as a beautifully patter...
