Description

A Black japanned long case clock with chinoiserie decoration. The case is in very good condition and is well decorated with polychrome chinoiserie designs. The clock is unusual for a lacquered case in having a rocking ship automaton in the arch of the dial. The twelve inch brass dial with appropriate spandrels has subsidiary dials showing date and seconds, and has an eight day movement. It is signed by Charles (Chas) Newman, of Lynn. The case is only 85" high, and the whole was made c 1785

Internal Ref: Lacquered long case clock
