Description

A beautiful and very small oak side table with single drawer and box stretchers. Original timbers throughout and retaining original pegs. . The drawer with thickly cut dovetails and nailed up bottom, turned feet original also and continuous with the legs. The drawer would originally have had a single central handle and now bears solid brass handles and escutcheon with attractive patination and wear – the handles are early 18th century and have been on the drawer for the last few hundred years, it originally had a central single drop. . The lower shelf branded beneath branded with the initials L.W. . Some old worm beneath stretchers, to side panels and to top – not significant and long since treated and dead. The table is heavy and robust, all as it should be. Twin boarded top with small loss to one rear corner. . It is extremely rare to find a fine small 17th century table in such original condition, with maker's brand and with a lovely patina and colour. . An absolute gem. . Dimensions are: . 24 inches wide, 23 inches high and 11.75 inches deep. . For metric please multiply by 2.5
