Description

Early 20th century Burmese hand carved side table An exceptionally well carved early 20th century example of a Burmese table. Detailed on the surface with a central three headed god like figure surrounded by floral and geometric shapes and forms. The style of this table is typical of the early 20th century Burmese furniture making style, all done by freehand carving, this is resented in that the top is not perfectly oval. Origin: Burma Material: Wood Age: 1920 - 1930 Size: Height 21" x Width 28" x Depth 16" Condition Report 1. Worn surface area. 2. Patina and staining of colour. 3. Worn wooden area. 4. The table stands firm without breaks. This item is untouched in form, it is firmly in place and secure to display and use functionally. Its exceedingly difficult to photograph all the areas of these pieces, therefore we strongly suggest reviewing all the photos provided as part of this advert and propose questions where sections are unclear to avoid disappointment upon purchase. For multiple years we have sold antique and vintage items globally, please expect our items to show relevant age and natural wear. Items are only restored due to breaks and loss, and we always sti...
