Description

A stunning art nouveau brass Pullman's Carriage coach lamp with coloured glass jewels and beaded detailing. The brass shade has foliate detail throughout and is embedded with three large coloured jewels; one blue, one green and one red. The shade is surrounded by strung clear beads. The stem has tapering ridged detailing to the centre and terminates in the typical tripod which bears further light foliate detailing. The original turn key remains to the stem but no longer operates the lamp. As such, the lamp can only be operated by turning on and off at the wall switch. An extremely attractive and decorative piece.
