Description

We are delighted to offer this sparkling antique diamond 18ct gold ring made in Birmingham 1897. Distinguished in style and made in the late Victorian period, this ring features not only lovely diamonds but fine goldsmithing of the period that can be seen in the intricate bifurcated shoulders and the very fine claws. 8 old cut diamonds are set in 18ct gold and taper slightly in size towards each end. The curved boat-shaped design of the ring allows for natural light to truly bring out the diamonds' beauty and the ring can be seen glistening from all angles. Such a combination of fine goldsmithing and jewellery design makes this an excellent and versatile choice whether be it for wearing as a contrasting piece of jewellery among other pieces or as an eye-catching single ring. The wonderful bright diamonds, well matched and wonderfully contrasted by the antique gold tone would make for a very special gift to a lucky individual or as an indulging gift to oneself. Classically elegant, distinguished and a conversation starter. Diamond is known to be the birthstone for April. The ring is hallmarked with English marks for 18ct gold and Birmingham 1897. All ...
