Description

A George II period, mahogany console / fold-over tea table, Circa 1730. This high quality table features an attractively figured solid mahogany top with square corners and slightly rounded edges. The top folds out to reveal a square top supported by a single gateleg rear leg. Plain frieze with central single drawer with brass knob handle. Raised on fine cabriole legs with off-set pad feet. A really good table, made from excellent early mahogany, making this extremely heavy for its size. Well presented. Cleaned and wax polished, and very much ready for use. Dimensions: This table measures approximately 72.5 cm (28.5") tall, 78.5 cm (31") wide, 36.5 cm (14.5") deep unfolded, and 74.5 cm (29.5") folded out across the top. Condition: Please see the pictures for details of the items condition. - This table is in a good condition, commensurate with its age, and is structurally sound and sturdy. Good colour, and polish. Some minor odd marks and blemishes. A couple of small old sympathetic repairs, and to the back arm on gateleg which has been repaired. Ready for use. - As with all vintage & antique furniture there will be signs of use, marks, wear & tear, etc.
