Description

A superb Georgian mahogany tripod table of above average quality and design. The top is of one piece of mahogany, this gives way to a tilt top that shows off the 'bird cage' support that allows the top to swivel. Below this is a turned stem, fluted at it's base. All sat on bold cabriole legs that have escaped heavy wear and consequential damage. All of the polish has been rejuvenated and the whole is in great condition ready to use and enjoy.
