Description

Early 20th century set of three decorative framed plaster plaques, copies of George Tinworth originals. George Tinworth was a famous artist who specialised in making plaster plaques for Royal Doulton. Although these do bear his monogram, and are of the period, I am pretty certain they are copies of the originals. All three are nicely framed in dark oak frames with a gold felt slip and glass front. All are in good clean condition. SIZES; The smaller ones are 11" square, the larger one is 18 1/2" wide by 11" high CIRCA; 1920's
