Description

Early 19th.c. pine dresser base c.1830. Top with an 18" deep front board and moulded edge over seven drawers of graduated height with brass knobs, arranged around a small lockable cupboard at the centre. Simple country design, note the chamfered edges around the door panel, repeated on the side panels, and the shaped detail by the feet at the front and sides. Some obvious old wear to the top, otherwise excellent condition and attractive pale colour. Cleaned restored and waxed in our workshops. Cupboard key supplied. Dimensions: Width 67" Height 35" Depth 21"
