Description

A French garden set comprising a table and a pair of folding chairs. These are of a simple and pleasing design , delicate in form yet strong and immediately useable. Very probably a former cafe or bistro set they are well weathered and have peeling scuffed and faded green paint. Obvious signs of use and age ,out in all weathers, yet they have survived well having had repairs over the years. The table has a galvanized top again very weathered , but perfectly useable for many a year yet. The photographs show the condition and colour well. The table diameter is about 50 cm and is 70 cm high. The chairs at the back are 80 cm from the ground. The seats are 42 cm from the ground and are 39 cm wide at the front.
