Description

A rare pair of pewter candlesticks. Marked for the maker Cocks of London and dating to c1820. Of unusual design with domed bases, stylised stems and drip trays. Both are crested with a lion's head. Possibly for use onboard a ship or as altar candlesticks. The condition is very good overall with no splits. Of very good colour with only slight signs of age related use to the sconces and the drip trays. Total weight approx 1.2kg. Height approx 23cm. Base diameter approx 10cm. Total span of 10cm at the widest point.
