Description

George III mahogany breakfront bookcase This George III mahogany breakfront bookcase was first made circa 1800. It is of breakfront form and the rare castle top. The bookcase comes into many parts, so that it makes it easy to transport into and around your home. The top has 4 glazed doors with decorative glazing bars that open to allow access to the adjustable shelves. The middle double section is higher than the end sections, and so gives the unusual design. The base also has the 4 doors that have adjustable shelves. Imagine the superb storage this Georgian bookcase will provide, while at the same time be a magnificent showpiece. Imagine this in your home, the pleasure of ownership this George III mahogany breakfront bookcase will give you and the compliments about the choice you have made. 219cms wide 86ins 228cms high 90ins 36cms deep 14ins All measurements are approximate.
