Description

Fine Original Georgian Highland Landscape Watercolour Painting Circa 1820 Brief Description: This is an all-original early 19th-century Georgian Landscape Watercolour Painting depicting a magnificent view of mountains and a fast-flowing river. The fabulous piece is entirely original, retaining the original inner-slip card, original Georgian glass panel and the original Georgian gilt frame. We have not been able to find a signature, however, to the rear of the frame is an attached label that reads: Probably by A.M.S c1820 It is a fabulously executed painting which screams Georgian charm and character. Attributes: Watercolour Painting Unsigned Circa: 1810-1820 Condition: The painting and the frame are offered in an overall fabulous original condition.
