Description

A simply stunning pair of table cabinets made from Mahogany each with a serpentine front creating a wonderful shaped door each with the most exceptional marquetry inlay in a classic design including Satinwood and Harewood amongst others. The top is decorated in each corner with a typically Edwardian fan inlay to each corner made from Satinwood and Harewood again. The fronts have a diamond shaped Ivory escutcheon both with a working key, both also have a small brass handle to making it easy to open the doors. These would look quite magnificent either end of a sideboard or showcased on lit shelving. Quite exquisite and in excellent condition. Each measures 9 1/2" wide, 7 3/4" deep x 12 1/2" tall.
