Description

Fine, all original, early 19th century Regency Scottish bow-fronted chest of drawers. This is a quality chest of drawers in basically un-touched original condition. Two over three drawer configuration, standing on shaped bracket feet. The drawers have a cock beaded edge with a typical Scottish boxwood line inlay and original round brass handles. The drawers have satin birch linings with pine bottoms. The shaped bracket feet are all original and also have a boxwood line inlay which is a nice touch. The chest is a very pleasing mellow colour and is in very good condition. SIZE; 43" wide (max) by 24" deep by 37" high CIRCA; 1810
