Description

A Fine Victorian Carriage Clock c1880 ~~ Excellent original condition throughout ~~ This is an original Victorian carriage clock dated to around 1880 and retailed by the famous Mappin and Webb Company of Regents Street, London. It has a traditional gilt case with a shaped fold down handle and bell. It is in excellent condition, bright and clean yet showing the patina which you would expect from a clock of this age. The French movement is of very high quality and still retains its original escapement, it runs for a full 8 days and keeps good time. All of the glass panels are perfect with no cracks or chips. The movement is in excellent clean and running condition having just undergone a complete and comprehensive overhaul by Alan Williams of Plymouth Clocks who is a fellow of the British Horological Institute so you can be assured that this clock will give trouble free service for many many years before requiring any further attention. The escapement is original and it comes with its original box and key which is quite rare. A beautiful high quality victorian carriage clock in wonderful condition which will give great pleasure for many years to come. This clock h...
